

Good News from Goodwill Industries of Northeastern PA

October 2024

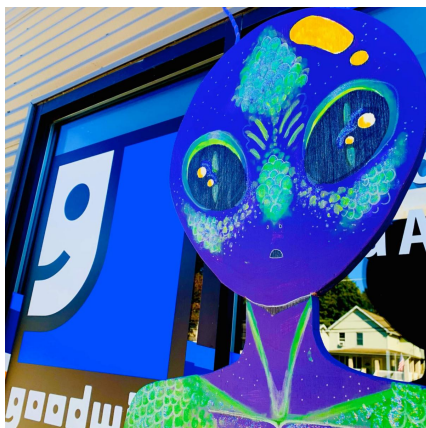

Find out the latest news and happenings from Goodwill Industries of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Goodwill supports The Recovery Bank
Goodwill Industries of Northeastern Pennsylvania (NEPA) recently donated two desktop computers to The Recovery Bank, Scranton. The organizations collaborate to present programming designed to help individuals during their employment search. Goodwill's donation is part of its on-going collaboration with The Recovery Bank as both organizations work to provide individuals with barriers to success a second chance. Halloween at Goodwill
On the hunt for Halloween items? Goodwill of NEPA is your one-stop destination for decor and costumes for all ages! Whether you're looking to DIY your own unique, one-of-a-kind costume, or purchase a new Halloween costume, we have you covered. Find your local Goodwill of NEPA store.

Goodwill sponsors Carbondalien Festival
Goodwill Industries of Northeastern Pennsylvania is proud to sponsor the upcoming Carbondalien Festival, a special event scheduled to take place in Carbondale on November 9, the 50th anniversary of city's famous encounter with a UFO. Our Community Participation Supports friends put their creativity to good use to decorate our 6-foot-tall wooden alien that is on display at our Childs donation center! Check out more photos of our alien.

Workforce Development Month

September is celebrated as National Workforce Development Month, recognizing the important role that workforce development programs play in shaping the economy and empowering job seekers. At Goodwill Industries of NEPA, we believe everyone deserves the opportunity for a rewarding career. Whether through our programs that help individuals with disabilities be successful in competitive integrated employment, or through our re-entry services designed to help justice-involved individuals, our programs strengthen lives, families, and communities one person at a time.
