E-cycling Made Easy:

Donate your old electronics for free!

Safely and easily donate them for free through Goodwill's recycling program with Reworld.

E-recycling at Goodwill Industries of NEPA

Goodwill Industries of Northeastern Pennsylvania is proud to partner with Reworld to offer residents across Northeastern Pennsylvania a convenient way to recycle their old electronic items, including TVs, for free!

This new partnership will allow a wide range of electronics to be donated at Goodwill Industries of NEPA retail stores and attended donation centers. Items accepted include televisions, computers, mobile devices, monitors, printers, and more!

Reworld will responsibly recycle any electronics that can't be sold in our stores, ensuring compliance with state and international standards for e-waste management.

By donating your gently used items alongside your electronics, you're not only helping the environment, but also providing life-changing opportunities for individuals right here in NEPA.

In case you missed it: Extended store hours

Good news, Goodwill shoppers and donors: We've extended our store hours to offer greater convenience and more time to make an impact! New store hours are Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-8 p.m. and Sunday, Noon-5 p.m.

Every single purchase and donation helps individuals right here in our local community overcome barriers to independence through job training and other programs. Thank you for helping us build a stronger community, one thrifted treasure at a time!

We believe in second chances.

Partnering to build brighter futures through reentry support

At Goodwill Industries of NEPA, we believe in the power of second chances. Through our reentry programs, we help justice-involved individuals overcome barriers to employment.

Goodwill is honored to serve as a proud member of the Lackawanna County Re-entry Task Force and its Employment Sub Committee. Together with our community partners, we're working to help citizens integrating into the community secure and maintain long-term employment right here in NEPA.

Professional Connections Camp in action

New skills, friendly faces, and lots of learning: summer camp season at Goodwill Industries of NEPA!

Students from Lackawanna County high schools participated in our Professional Connections Foundations program. Supported by the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation, students are learning how to get and keep a job, taking tours of local workplaces, and participating in job shadowing.

A huge thank you to Cintas Corporation in Olyphant for opening their doors and hosting our students for a fantastic tour! Partners like Cintas help us build a more inclusive, welcoming community for everyone.

Goodwill receives grant to support workforce development

Goodwill Industries of NEPA has been awarded $7500 from the PNC Foundation to support local job seekers and employers.

The funding will support a six-part virtual Lunch and Learn series exploring how AI can aid in the job search, free Northstar digital literacy courses, and a community job fair.
